

Advantages of Studying Sports Programmes for Joining Disciplined Services

Students can participate in value-added activities related to disciplined services to understand recruitment requirements and enhance their chances of joining these forces.

- Recruitment Schemes of Disciplined Services: Students are recommended to join various recruitment programmes, including the 'Police Mentorship Programme' and the experience and recruitment day offered by Hong Kong Correctional Services, to understand assessment requirements

Hong Kong Correctional Services
Recruitment Programme

Disciplined Services
Recruitment Vehicle

- Interview Training for Disciplined Services: Recruitment teams from disciplined services are invited to explain entry requirements, provide mock interview training, and offer preparation guidance for the Basic Law and Hong Kong National Security Law tests, increasing the chances of successful employment

Fire Service Department
Recruitment Talk

Correctional Services
Recruitment Event

- Sharing Sessions by Former Senior Officers: Former senior officials from disciplined services, such as former Assistant Commissioners of Police, are invited to share insights about career development and challenges faced by frontline officers

Sharing session
by Head of Disciplined Services

Sharing session by Former Directors of Immigration

- Site Visits to Various Disciplined Services: Regular visits to disciplined services facilities are organised to understand actual work duties, including visits to the Hong Kong Police College, district police stations, fire stations, ambulance station, and correctional institutions

Visit the Fire Station

Visit the Ambulance Station

- Related Activities: I-opening classes and Chinese-style foot drill for the flag-raising team, amongst other activities

National Day Flag-Raising Ceremony

I-opening classes